County Council Rescinds Appropriation of $15,000 to Put New Roof on Court House

PASSES ONE FOR SAME SUM

"Passes Buck," to Commissioners Who Must Decide Whether or not to Redecorate

The county council "passed the buck" to the county commissioners Saturday afternoon and now if a new roof is placed on the court house, or the old one repaired and the court house decorated on the interior, it will be up to the board.

The county council listened attentively to William G. Andrews, an interior decorator of Clinton, Iowa, and after listening paved the way whereby a new roof may be placed on the building, or the roof may be repaired and Andrews given a job of decorating the interior. The ordinance originally appropriated $15,000 for a new roof was rescinded and a new ordinance passed.

The passage of this new ordinance gives the interior decorator a chance to land a nice fat job. It will be up to the commissioners to decide whether the court house needs an entirely new roof, or the old one repaired and the interior decorated. The new ordinance appropriates the sum of $15,000. Under the terms of the ordinance the money is to be used either for a new roof or for repairing the old one and decorating the interior.

The plan of Andrews was very simple. Under the old ordinance appropriating $15,000 for a new roof, the county commissioners were tied down simply to placing a new roof on the building. Under the change in plans the way is opened for spending $15,000 for repairing the roof and also getting the building redecorated.

The ordinance as drawn up by Andrews and presented to the county council is as follows: "An ordinance appropriating $15,000 for a new roof or interior and exterior repairs to roof and general repairs to the exterior and the restoring of the plaster and ornamental plaster, damaged in the interior, the decoration of all walls and ceilings and furnishing throughout the building."

By getting this ordinance passed Andrews will have a chance to submit plans for repairing the roof and decorating. The plans as originally drawn up by the architect for the new roof will stand. It simply develops into a question of what plan to follow—either a new roof or repair the old one and decorate. If a new roof is placed on the building there can be no decorating this year.

Roof experts have told the commissioners that the old roof cannot be repaired with any degree of satisfaction. The architect would not attempt to draw up plans to repair the roof, believing that the only solution is a new roof. Andrews, the man who talked the council into changing the ordinance, was the original decorator when the court house was built. He made a statement Saturday that he could save the county $10,000 on the job. The question promises to attract much attention before it is definitely settled.

The county council did not get to the appropriations for the bridges and repairs. Another meeting will be necessary as the $15,000 appropriated Saturday was the maximum for one day.

FOURTH OR FIFTH TIME UP

Jesse Ridout Gets $30 and Costs and Mayor Suspends Sentence

Jesse Ridout was fined $30 and costs and given thirty days by Mayor Bebout this morning in police court on a charge of public intoxication. It was his fourth or fifth appearance before the mayor on a similar charge. The sentence, amounting in all to seventy days was suspended pending good behavior. Mayor Bebout took pity on Ridout. Ridout is a good worker and the mayor disliked to take his services away from his family.

Recent Act of Congress, Recruiting Officer Believes, Will Help in Present Propaganda

LIEUTENANT WRITES HERE

Edward R. Coppock, first lieutenant of cavalry, recruiting officer at the U. S. army station in Indianapolis, has written here calling attention to a new act of congress which, it is believed, will prove a great incentive to enlistment. Great interest attaches to the subject just now because of the effort of federal authorities to increase the regular army, anticipating preparedness legislation. The lieutenant cites an act of congress approved May 4 of this year as follows:

"That the President is hereby authorized to appoint cadets to the United States Military Academy from among enlisted men of the Regular Army between the ages of nineteen and twenty-two, to be selected under such regulations as the President may prescribe."

SUES TO COLLECT FOR LAW LIBRARY

National Correspondence School Asks $100 of Warren P. Elder in Payment for Books

FAILS TO MEET PAYMENTS

The National Correspondence School filed suit today against Warren P. Elder on a contract demanding $100. It is alleged in the complaint that on February 16, 1915 Mr. Elder entered into a contract with the plaintiff company, purchasing a set of books called "The American and English Law Library," the contract price being $75.60, payable at the rate of $2.50 per month. By obtaining the books, it is alleged that he was enrolled as a student of the correspondence school and was entitled to a complete three years course. It is alleged that the defendant failed to meet the monthly payments after June 17, 1915. The complaint is in three paragraphs and was prepared by Chauncey Duncan.

Sam Blair, who has been here for about a year as district agent of the Aetna Life Insurance company, has been detailed to some special work with the state agency of the company and will have a desk in the office in the Terminal building in Indianapolis. Elmer Edkins of Connersville will be here for the present until a local agent is procured.

RUSHVILLE BOY FINISHES THIRD

Duane Reed, Who Spoke at Oratorical Contest at Greensburg, Placed Next to Last

RICHMOND WINS THE PRIZE

Greensburg Judges Decide Contest, Much to Dissatisfaction of Rushville Delegation

The Rushville delegation of nearly a hundred high school students and other people at Greensburg Saturday night was pulling hard for Duane Reed to win the annual oratorical contest for Rushville, and when the decision of the judges was to be announced and Reed's name was called first, the pent-up energy of the rooters was ready to break loose. The official announcer hesitated. But when he said, a disconsolate crowd started for the door because he said third.

William Haberkorn of Richmond, speaking on "The Challenge of Crime," was given first place and Richard Hall of Shelbyville, whose subject was "The Mercy that Condemns," was ranked second. Robert Mason of Greenfield was fourth. His topic was "The Battle of Gettysburg."

It was a very sadly disappointed crowd of Rushville supporters that came home late Saturday night because they had an idea that Reed was going to win after they had heard all four orators. Reed had the worst position, first but he gave his speech well and was highly complimented for it.

The Rushville crowd was amazed at the poor support given the oratorical by the Greensburg people and the high school. Although there was no contestant from Greensburg, it was thought by those from here attending that there would have been at least a dozen or so Greensburg citizens present. When the contest opened Rushville people composed fully fifty per cent of the audience. Rushville's delegation was the largest of any and yelled lustily and sang for its representative.

The judges were all from Greensburg, a practice not followed heretofore by the association. It is said that Rushville protested against "picking up" judges on the spur of the moment because in the past special attention had been paid to get experienced judges.

Those who placed the contestants were the Rev. L. E. Murr, pastor of the Second M. E. church of Greensburg; the Rev. F. Z. Burkette, pastor of the Christian church there, and Miss Clara Brown, teacher of English in the Greensburg high school. They judged on mannerism, articulation, gestures, voice and preparation.

The two ministers gave the Richmond boy first, but Miss Brown ranked him third. Her choice was Hall of Shelbyville, who also received a second and a third. Reed was given third by one preacher and second by the other two judges. He was just one point under Hall's total. Mason was placed fourth by all judges. The grades were not made public.

Greensburg has a beautiful new high school building in which the contest was held. The event took place in the assembly room of the building.

TO BE PRECEDENT IN OTHER CASES

Decision in Suit of Creamery Package Manufacturing Co., Vs T. E. McAllister Will be Criterion

NINE SIMILAR ONES ON FILE

Defendant, Who is Sued to Compel Payment on Stock, Alleges Thing Was Misrepresented

The case of the Creamery Package Manufacturing Company against T. E. McAllister was tried today in the circuit court before Judge Sparks and a jury. The case is on a note and the demand is $100, but this is not so important as the criterion to be established, which may decide nine other cases of a similar nature now pending.

The complaint alleged that McAllister subscribed for some stock to the now defunct creamery and gave his note to guarantee payment. It is alleged that he never paid the note and the suit is to force payment. It was expected that the case would go to the jury this afternoon.

A total of ten of these cases were filed and this is the first one to be tried. The case is important to the other cases pending. The defense maintains that a representative of the creamery company misrepresented the stock sale and the proposed value of the creamery plant when completed and in operation.

In the answer to the complaint alleged that a J. J. Kidwell had charge of the stock sale and that many names placed on his paper were done for effect and were not genuine subscribers of stock. The jury for the most part is made up of business men. It is now difficult to get farmers on juries because they are so busy. The plaintiff's side of the case was presented by Kiplinger and Smith and John A. Tittsworth represented the defendant. The evidence in this suit is expected to be the same as that in the others.

The jury was composed of the following men: Charles Moore, Ferd Retherford, W. H. Smelser, Alva Newhouse, G. H. Meyer, W. E. Jones, W. E. Wallace, George H. Havens, John Heeb, James Rees, J. W. Hogsett and Frank Flint.

Nina Lewis, administratrix of the estate of the late John G. Lewis, was given a judgment for $31 and costs against Erma Bussell. It was an account suit and the original demand was $200.

CONVINCED FIRES WERE INCENDIARY

United States Authorities on Border Reach Conclusion After Report is Received

BLAZES ARE AN HOUR APART

(By United Press.)

San Antonio, Texas, May 15.—The two fires which started at widely separated points on Ft. Bliss military reservation at El Paso Saturday night were probably of incendiary origin, General Funston announced today after receiving the official report. Funston was badly disturbed.

The fires broke out more than an hour apart and destroyed three stables and a store house. Tents and several machine guns were lost in the store house fire and in the other four horses were burned, General Bell reported. Civilians aided the soldiers in extinguishing the fire.

DRAMATIST ACTS AS COACH

Tarkington Baker of Indianapolis in Charge of Senior Production

The fact that Tarkington Baker of Indianapolis is to coach the high school senior play, "Facing the Music," which will be given commencement week, is adding interest to the production of it. Mr. Baker who was formerly dramatic critic of the Indianapolis News, is well known in dramatic circles all over the state and elsewhere. He has also had experience as a producer. Mr. Baker is now coaching several high school plays at other places in Indiana. Because of his work, the play this year is expected to set a new mark for home talent affairs.

CASEMENT IS PUT ON TRIAL IN LONDON

Testimony American Priest Tried to Get German Recruits From Irish Prisoners Offered

IS CHARGED WITH TREASON

(By United Press.)

London, May 15.—Calm and smiling, Sir Roger Casement, once a favorite in the British consular service went to trial today in Bow street police court on the charges of high treason, punishable by hanging. It was the first high treason trial held in the court since the Boer war and the court room was packed.

In his opening statement Attorney General Smith declared the Crown would prove that Sir Roger plotted not only the Irish rebellion but planned to land expeditions in Ireland and at several places on the British coast. Casement received the charge calmly.

Testimony that an American priest, Father Nicholson, aided Sir Roger in attempting to secure recruits for the German army from Irish prisoners at the Lumburg prison camp was offered by Daniel O'Brien, an exchange prisoner, this afternoon. O'Brien said there were 25,000 Irish prisoners at Lumburg but that few of them yielded to Father Nicholson's persuasion. Another exchanged Irish prisoner gave similar testimony.

ALLEGES $3,500 IS DUE AS COMMISSION

Maynard M. Erb Files Suit Against Jasper D. Case For Part he Says he Played in Sale

AN ECHO OF A RECENT DEAL

Maynard M. Erb filed suit against Jasper D. Case this afternoon on a contract, demanding $3,500. It is alleged in the complaint that he entered into a verbal contract May 19, 1915 with Mr. Case whereby he was to act as agent and sell the Case lumber yards in this city. He alleges that he made the sale in the name of Mr. Case, the consideration being $39,730.

The complaint avers that the terms of the sale were complied with and the property transferred. Mr. Erb states that his commission was to be $3,500 and that Case refused to pay him. The complaint is in two paragraphs. Raymond Springer, and McKee, Wiles and Elliott of Connersville represent the plaintiff.

ARE COMPELLED TO DO GYM WORK

For This Reason Average Swiss Man
is Better Physically Than Men of This Country.

GOVERNMENT PRESCRIBES

Warlike Sports Are Encouraged and
Boys Are Taught How to Shoot a Rifle.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berne May 13—The average Swiss man is better physically and as a soldier than the average American male, thanks to the system of compulsory military training in Switzerland.

"Gets under the hide, a statement
like this, but it's true.

Every male Swiss can shoot
straighter, run longer, march farther and endure more than the average male American. You have only to know what the Swiss is taught to do and what the average American isn't taught to do to realize that this is true.

Every Swiss school boy MUST go to a gymnasium. Every Swiss school must HAVE a gymnasium. It doesn't matter whether it's a church school or a business college or a fancy, high-priced school for little Swiss Lord Fauntleroy; it MUST have a gymnasium.

In this gymnasium MUST be taught daily, certain exercises prescribed by the government. These are the highly scientific product of the deepest study in physical development.

The average American doesn't
even know what these exercises are.
Now and then, it is true, after he's fattening up at thirty, the American answers an advertisement and purchases some alleged scientific physical culture book and follows the instructions therein.

Any Swiss school boy of ten could teach him a world of valuable things
in this line.

By the time a Swiss school boy is twenty he has developed his physique to its high point.

He has made his body as fine and strong as his particular body can be made.

This has been done scientifically
and meanwhile, the call of his splendid muscles has driven him to football and other sports.

That crowded Polo Grounds in
New York makes you sick, when you look over these Swiss. You couldn't get 10,000 healthy Swiss to sit around of an afternoon watching
OTHER men play a game. Each man wants to play himself. Hundreds of little sport centers are always busy.

That cheering grandstand at the Polo Grounds, filled with men that couldn't run to first base without puffing, is a disgusting thought, here
in the war country.

Anything in the world is better than that. Any pacifist must admit that even learning how to shoot, out
in the country—learning how to shoot with the intention of killing an enemy some day if you have to—is better than the average American's silly MENTAL participation in baseball. Or, if you're too much of a baseball fan, makes it kelly pool.
The average Swiss boy can out-
shoot the average American boy.

HELD UP WEDDING

Couple Ate Ham and Eggs Waiting For Marrying Justice.

LOST A NIGHT AUTO RACE.

Greenwich (Conn.) Justice Refused
Pleas For Him to Get Up, and So
Couple Got Something to Eat and
Waited In City Hall Till Morning.

New York.—Traveling a good part of the night by automobile only to arrive
too late to be married and breaking the monotony of the long wait till morning
by eating ham and eggs ordered from a lunch wagon, Mr. and Mrs. Earl R.
Fisher arrived in this city, having been joined in matrimony early in the morning by Justice of the Peace Albert F.
Mead at Greenwich, Conn.

Mr. Fisher is from Providence, R. I.,
and Mrs. Fisher is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Julius Livernols of Worcester, Mass. She was educated in a convent school at Nicolet, Canada. They met in Providence recently at a dance.
Mr. Fisher is connected with a fire-
proofing company.

When seen at their hotel the young people said the courtship in its serious
phase had started only two months before their marriage.

"Three days after deciding to enter
the matrimonial sea we came to New York," Mrs. Fisher said, "and our original plan was to be married in Jersey City. But we were told that a twenty-four hour interval between the license
and the marriage was required in Jersey, so we telephoned Captain Talbert, the chief of police at Greenwich, and
he said to come right ahead.

"We set out shortly after dinner and
after driving through the rain arrived
in Greenwich about 2 o'clock. Captain Talbert received us at the town hall,
but at that late hour the justice of the peace, who was necessary to the ceremony, refused to be wakened. So we waited in the town hall."

"About 4 o'clock," said Mr. Fisher,
"we all decided we were quite hungry
and went out and had 'ham and' at a lunch wagon, this being the only thing
in sight resembling a restaurant.

"When the day got under way the justice of the peace appeared and we were married. We started back to
New York and had a real breakfast."

Miss Crystal Sheperd, a moving picture actress, and Ray Howard of New York were the witnesses. The eloping was done in Mr. Howard's limousine.

"There was no particular objection
to our getting married," said the bride,
"but we feared Earl might soon have to go to China in connection with his work, and we weren't taking any chances."

club in his neighborhood.

The club is supported by the community. His shooting costs him
nothing.

Let an American boy get the idea
that he wants to be a sharpshooter.
Where can he learn?

Where, in most cases, will he find
the money to buy his rifle and ammunition?

Rich American boys, true enough,
have opportunity to learn the art of shooting. Good shooting is among the accomplishments of almost every rich American youth.

But the average American boy, no
matter how deeply he may be stirred
by his desire to learn how to defend himself and his country in war, is without a chance unless he later in life develops political or social ambition, and goes into the state militia.

In his shooting, as in his physical training, the Swiss youth finds a world of fun. There are shooting matches in various neighborhoods.

Finally, the champions of a canton are weeded out. They shoot against each other in semi-finals
and every year at Berne there is a great national shooting match that draws throngs of husky shooting men from every corner of the little country.

Warlike sports, says the pacifist.
Yes, but it's a sport that keeps Switzerland from war. And baseball and cricket never kept any country from war.

At the law office of Sam. L. Trabue, Rushville, Ind.

This real estate consists of residence property at 820 W. Eighth St., Rushville, sufficiently undulating for excellent drainage, which is provided by two large tile drains crossing each tract, and sufficient laterals. It is equipped with two complete sets of farm buildings, is well fenced and is supplied with excellent water by eight wells, three being deep water wells. This is burr oak, poplar and sugar tree land, and is very productive of all kinds of grain and grasses.

It is all under a high state of cultivation except about 35 acres of woodland,

FRANCE IS VERY GREEN.
Every Possible Shade Is Shown in Its Amazing Vegetation.
It might fairly be said that the general impression France as a whole leaves upon the beholder is green. Perpetually moist of climate—except in the south—endowed with heavy and continuous rainfalls and having a temperature which is astonishingly even year in and year out, the country is like an enormous hothouse.
The result is a study in greens of every conceivable and inconceivable shade. Verdure and foliage range from greens that are gray or black to greens that are hardly more than yellow. From the hardy pastures high upon the sides of the towering Pelvoux range, thousands of feet above the sea, to the cactus and agaves and olives that grow at the water's edge the verdant nuances are a revelation in rural coloring.
But France is not all green either. That is only the background, the filler, as it were, for a warm toned picture full of high lights, touched with the gold of grain, the ruddy tiles of ancient roofs, the fiery spatter of poppies, the tawny flood of a river or the steely thread of a brook, and on the glistening southern shore, with cliffs as red as any soil New Jersey boasts, water like melted sapphires, villas covered with majolica tiles that make the beholder rub his eyes and wonder if he is dreaming the amazing inebrities of style and color that strive to but cannot shatter the harmony of creation.—National Geographic Magazine.

A Miniature Holland.
England has a Holland in miniature near the mouth of the Thames. Canvey island, beloved of holiday makers, was until three centuries ago almost submerged, but in 1623 a Dutch dyker named Croppenburgh erected a high sea wall and cut drains, which converted it into rich and arable land. Many of the Dutch workmen engaged in the work settled on the reclaimed land, and the Dutch aspect of the island is preserved until this day.—London Chronicle.

So Shy!
"That's a nasty cut on your temple," an employer said to his clerk. "How did it happen?"
"I had words with my wife," the clerk answered.
"Your wife gave you that?" exclaimed the employer. "And she used to be such a shy girl!"
"So she is now," said the clerk. "She's always shying, and she never misses."—Washington Star.

Amusements

"The Living Lie," is the title of the first picture at the Gem tonight. It is a three part drama featuring Mina Cunard and Jack Livingston. It is a story of Paris' Latin quarter which is centered on an artist's model. The other picture is a drama "Blazing the Trail." Fred Church is featured and it is said to be an unusual picture. Tomorrow, matinee and night the tenth episode of "The Girl and The Game" will be shown. This one is entitled "A Dash Through the Flames."

"The Perkins' Pep Producers," the title of the sixth chapter of "The Chronicles of Bloom Center" promises to furnish the usual number of laughs at the Mystic tonight. Bloom Center advertises for a trained nurse and when the pretty wife of the owner of the patent medicine answers the ad all male members of the little town become ill. It is said to be a very funny production. One other reel promises to make this a wonderful program.

The Princess offers the five reel feature "The Bigger Man," for the program tonight. Henry Kolker, the celebrated actor and an all-star cast produce this picture. It is a powerful sociological study portraying the selfish and snobbish barriers which class rears against class in this country in defiance of the principles laid down by the founders of American liberty. The theme is well handled and the plot one that will please, even if it does not startle in its denouncement. Tomorrow the three act drama "A Man's Work" will be shown.

A penny supper will be given, Wednesday May 17th at the St. Pauls M. E. church, by the Watson class.

Tire Wear is Like Shoe Wear

A heavy man is hard on shoe leather; a heavy car is hard on rubber.

Some people are easier on shoes than others. They have a light, springy step that prolongs wear.

So it is with the Franklin car. Its light weight saves the tires from hard pounding; its flexible, springy construction softens the shocks that the tires must stand.

This is the reason for the national Franklin owners' average of 9630 miles per set of tires. And also why punctures are few and blowouts almost unheard of.

War Diminishes Labor

The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington Headquarters:

"Men who desire to take a comprehensive view of present day economic conditions should not overlook the effect of changes in immigration due to the war in Europe. The latest statistics issued by the Department of Labor show that the net increase in our population by reason of movement of aliens, for the past three fiscal years, has been as follows:

Year Ending,	Increase.
June 30, 1913	815,303
June 30, 1914	769,276
June 30, 1915	50,070

"The figures for the year ending June 30, 1916, will show an increase of only about 50,000. It is obvious, therefore, that the European war has cut off a net increase of a million and a quarter in our population, mostly of the laboring class. If that million and a quarter people had been added to our population, and the war had not come to shut off imports of merchandise and create an unprecedented market for our goods, no sincere and thoughtful men can doubt that we should now be facing a more serious unemployment problem than that which confronted us prior to the outbreak of the war.

"The Democratic press is gloating over the scarcity of labor and the increase in wages in some lines of business, inferentially assuming that the party in power is entitled to count this condition as a political asset. Men who are getting employment where they were previously idle, or who are getting increases in wages, are not told why this change has come about.

"Since economic problems will be the most influential factors in the election next November, and since it is of the greatest importance that in a democracy the people have all the facts upon which to base their conclusions, it becomes the duty of every man discussing present-day industrial conditions to place these statistics before his audience or his readers.

"While it may be 'pitiless' to give publicity to the real basis for such prosperity as we now enjoy, the American voter is entitled to have the facts."

TODAY'S EDITORIAL.

This is the official day for the Straw Hat to come out of the Haberdashery and see its own shadow.

The Straw Hat is a glorified bunch of hay. It is supposed to be worn upon the head, but it frequently graces the ear, the eyebrow or the back of the neck.

Fat men do not wear Straw Hats; they just set them on their heads when they're not fanning.

The Straw Hat is temperamental. If it does not like a man, it will fly off and the owner must put it on a leash, which he fastens to his coat with a black, oval button that looks like a liver pill.

Next to a dog fight, an escaped straw hat in a wind storm is the most exciting thing in the world.

The Straw Hat eats five dollar bills. If you don't believe it, get one today and see.

SALOON IS HIT BY TWO SPEAKERS

Insurance Man at Conference of Charities Declares Industry and Inebriety Don't Mix

SAID TO HURT WORKING MEN

Physical Care of Child in Rural Schools Was Another Subject Discussed.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, May 15.—Industry and inebriety do not go together, according to Alexander Fleisher, director of the welfare division of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company at the meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Correction here today.

"We will not tolerate anyone in our establishment who makes noticeable use of intoxicants." This and similar extracts were quoted by the speaker in a review of the institute.

The investigation which he reported covered 750,000 employees. Of 7,025 firms reporting 3,527 have established regulations covering the use of alcohol by their employees. Nearly 700 of these demand that no employee use intoxicants either on or off duty. In concluding, Mr. Fleisher said:

"This analysis indicates that a number of employers are making up their minds on the use of alcohol by their employees. They are not considering the detailed and intricate questions of the effects of alcohol on the mind and body. They find the non-drinker the more satisfactory employee."

Speaking on life insurance and drinking habits, Arthur Hunter, actuary of the New York Life Insurance company said that the mortality among those who at date of their application for insurance took two glasses of whiskey a day but did not drink to excess, was 80 per cent above the normal. The workingmen and the alcohol problem was the subject of an address by Rev. Charles Stelzel of New York City. He said "The saloon as much never helped the workingmen to clean fight against child labor, in favor of higher wages, and better shop conditions. When a strike for these and other reforms is in progress the wise labor leader orders his men to keep away from the saloon.

The physical care of the child in rural schools was the subject of a section meeting addressed by Dr. Taliaferro Clark, at this morning's session. Other subjects considered by the Conference were classification of the feeble-minded, community service, and social research at public institutions.

WOULD PURIFY THE RANKS

Wants Ministers to Aid Each Other in Work.

(By United Press.)
Danville, Ind., May 15.—Delegates to the seventy-seventh annual convention of the Christian Churches of Indiana who gathered here today heard a plea for greater co-operation by "shepherds of all folds" by the Rev. George H. Clarke of Indianapolis.

Remarking upon the avidity which the public reads of ministers "gone wrong," Mr. Clarke urged ministers of all faiths to aid each other in purifying their rank and upholding the hands of righteous ministers.

SIXTH DISTRICT WILL TAKE PART

Students at Earlham Will Have
Roles in Gigantic Shakespeare
Celebration May 20.

TO REPRESENT MANY PLAYS

School Children of Richmond Join in
in Movement—Considered an Educational Feature.

Richmond, Ind., May 15.—Practically every student of the Sixth district enrolled at Earlham college will take part in the gigantic Shakespeare celebration which is to be held on the open air theatre of the college on Saturday, May 20. The college enrollment was not large enough to supply all the characters for the Shakespeare celebration and so the clubs of the city have been asked to lend their assistance.

Almost every play Shakespeare wrote will be presented in a pageant that is to be the outstanding feature of the celebration, which will be the largest Shakespeare anniversary celebration in eastern Indiana. Even the school children of Richmond have been called on to help.

Hundreds of children, trained by Supervisor Nohr, will give the folk dances of the time of Queen Elizabeth and Shakespeare. Last year they presented a series of dances in the Coliseum that attracted so much attention that hundreds of spectators asked that they be repeated. The children will dance and take part in the celebration on the Earlham campus.

Residents of all the cities near Richmond have been asked to visit the college on Saturday May 20 and see the celebration.

The college authorities are especially anxious that school teachers and parents join the thousands who will attend, as the celebration is one of the real educational features offered this year in this section of the state.

Professor Starts Out to Learn More
of the Mohicans Than Cooper
Ever Wrote.

WILL VISIT LAKE OSTEGO

Cooperstown, N. Y., May 15.—J. Fennimore Cooper wrote "The Last of the Mohicans," but it wasn't last. Armed with spade and pickax, Professor Warren K. Moorhead of Philips Andover academy and his expedition started out today to learn more about the Mohicans than Cooper ever wrote.

The party, which includes Alanson Skinner, formerly of the American Museum of Natural History of New York and now of the George Hay Museum of American Indians; Ernest O. Sudgen of Orland, Me. and several others left today to examine the shores of Lake Ostego, where the Indians of Cooper lived centuries ago.

The party plans to go down the Susquehanna river in light skiffs, exploring the banks and adjoining fields which were at one time the hunting grounds of the Mohicans. The expedition will work up the tributaries of the Susquehanna, including the Unadilla river which is rich in Indian lore.

Professor Moorhead is certain that his expedition will uncover new Indian lore and that many facts valuable to the history of the American Indian will be learned.

LAKE TRAFFIC WILL BE HEAVY

Shipping There is Expected to be Greatest in History, According to Officials

FREIGHT RATES ADVANCED

Value Expected to Reach Billion
Dollars—Heaviest is Ore, Coal,
Grain and Lumber.

Cleveland, May 15.—Traffic on the Great Lakes will be the greatest in history, this season, George Marr, secretary of the Lake Carriers' association, told the United Press today. Prosperity makes shipping.

The estimated total value of the traffic this season will be $1,250,000,000 as against a record mark of $950,000,000 last season. The 500 freighters in the Great Lakes fleet, of which 80 per cent is managed in Cleveland, will be taxed to capacity.

The following estimate compiled by Marr shows what is expected in six main lines of freight this year as compared with 1915.

Iron Ore, 55,000,000 tons in 1916; 47,500 000 tons. in 1915.

Coal, 33,000,000 tons, in 1916; 26,000,000 tons in 1915.

Grain, 14,000,000 tons, in 1916; 9,000,000 tons, in 1915.

Lumber, 475,000,000 Feet; 460,000,000 feet, in 1915.

Flour, 20,000,000 Bbls. in 1916; 15,000,000 bbls. in 1915.

General Merchandise, 2,000,000 tons, in 1916; 1,595,000 tons in 1915. With the increase in traffic, freight rates have advanced. On iron ore rates have advanced from 40 to 50 cents net a ton; on coal from 30 to 35 cents net per ton. On grain the rate had advanced from two cents to six cents per ton.

Among the larger fleets on the lakes are: Pittsburgh Steamship Co., a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corporation, with 100 freighters, some of them 600 feet long; Interlake Steamship Co., 52; Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co., 22; Hutchinson and Co., 25 Great Lakes Transportation Co., 19, and W. H. Becker, 17.

START LONG TRIP IN AEROPLANE

Expect to Make Flight From Los Angeles to New York in Six Days Time.

TRYING OUT NEW DEVICE

Electrical Expert Has Automatic
Equilibrium Device That he is Demonstrating

(By United Press.)

Los Angeles, Cal., May 15.—Two thousand feet over Nigger Slough near here today, two men waved adieu to a neck craning throng and headed east toward the Sierra Madre mountains in an aeroplane. Their destination was New York.

Oscar Brindley, veteran air pilot, and A. J. Macy, inventor settled back in their seats, to let the first self balancing plane in America fly them from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

The two men plan to cover nearly 4,000 miles ending their ride at Mineola, L. I., next Sunday. Just six days.

Macy, a Chicago electrical engineer, by the cross continent flight plans to demonstrate to the government of France, England and United States, a mechanism of his own invention which will balance an aeroplane perfectly.

The pilot has but to steer the plane in the desired direction—up or down, to left or right, then relax and let the automatic equilibrium device keep the plane on a flying keel.

Neither Macy or Brindley make any exaggerate claims for the device.

"Nothing could be a fairer test than the flight from Los Angeles to New York in six days," they say.

The plane is a hundred horse power Martin tractor of the military type; especially equipped for the trip.

The route taken will be via, Salt Lake, Denver, Omaha, St. Louis, Chicago and New York.

COMMANDER IS GIVEN PUNISHMENT

Well Defined Rumor in Berlin Officer
of U-Boat Sinking Sussex
Was Punished.

HUMILIATION IN GERMANY

(By United Press.)

The Hague, May 15.—Severe punishment was meted out to the commander of the German submarine which attacked the Sussex, it is generally believed in well informed circles in Berlin, though no official report on the nature of the punishment has been made public.

This belief is made largely on the indignation felt in Germany over the U-boat commander's deception. His report was implicitly believed until the American government produced conclusive evidence that the channel packet was sunk by a German submarine. In view of this evidence Germans feel that they were put in a rather humiliating position. It is not over-stating the case that the submarine commander's deception caused as much indignation in Berlin as in the United States.

VILLA'S DOG FOUND.

Cleveland, May 16.—Villa's whereabouts may be unknown, but his dog has been found. It's Cleveland, the pet of Mrs. Martin Sanders. He's a Chihuahua bred puppy named Chiquita—Spanish for small. When Villa left Juarez he left the pup with his brother, who gave him to a horse exhibitor at the races, who sold the dog to Mrs. Sanders.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets are
a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dizziness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

MONEY IN SALONIKI.

Why the Merest Glimpse of It Will Produce a Near Riot.

In normal times, if Saloniki is ever normal, she has a population of 120,000, and every one of those 120,000 is personally interested in any one else who engages or may be about to engage in a money transaction. In New York if a horse falls down, there is at once an audience of a dozen persons. In Saloniki the downfall of a horse is nobody's business, but a copper coin changing hands is everybody's. Of this local characteristic John T. McCutcheon and I made a careful study, and the result of our investigations produced certain statistics.

If in Saloniki you buy a newspaper from a newsboy, of the persons passing two will stop; if at an open shop you buy a package of cigarettes five people will look over your shoulders; if you pay your cab driver his fare you block the sidewalk, and if you try to change a 100 franc note you cause a riot. In each block there are nearly a half dozen money changers. They sit in little shops as narrow as a doorway, and in front of them is a showcase filled with all the moneys of the world.

It is not alone the sight of your 100 franc note that enchants the crowd. That collects the crowd, but what holds the crowd is that it knows there are twenty different kinds of money, all current in Saloniki, into which your note can be changed. And they know the money changer knows that and that you do not. So each man advises you—not because he does not want to see you cheated (between you and the money changer he is neutral), but because he can no more keep out of a money deal than can a fly pass a sugar bowl.

The men on the outskirts of the crowd ask, "What does he offer?" The lucky ones in the front row seats call back, "A hundred and eighty drachmas." The rear ranks shout with indignation: "It is robbery!" "It is because he changes his money in Venizelos street!" "He is paying the money changer's rent!" "In the Jewish quarter they are giving nineteen!" "He is too lazy to walk two miles for a drachma!" "Then let him go to the Greek Papanastassion!"—Richard Harding Davis in Scribner's.

Bridgeport, Conn.—Office boys at the Remington Arms and Ammunition company's plant must have athletic capabilities to meet the requirements of the job. The corridors in the plant are so long that it is a considerable journey between many of the offices.

The company has recently gone into the traffic problem, and the result is that twenty-five bicycles and eighty-five pairs of rubber roller skates are being used by the 110 office boys in the plant. The skates are noiseless, so that a youngster can whirl in and be gone before the recipient of the message picks it up.

FLEET STARTS LONG PROGRAM

Will Spend Total of Five Months Trying to Show People How it Can Fight.

TARGET PRACTICE PLANNED

Submarines Will Come in For Their Part—Will Continue Until November 1.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 15.—The Atlantic fleet of Uncle Sam's navy started out today to cut circles around itself to show the American people what it really can do in the way of scrapping. The exhibition, in one form or another, will continue until November 1.

The official program provides for fleet and division exercises off the North Atlantic in the vicinity of Newport, together with a war game in conjunction with the army from July 24 to 29.

Target practice will be held on the southern drill grounds from September 1 to 30, after which the fleet will be scattered to the home ports for docking and minor repairs.

Beginning today the battleships of the fleet will operate singly for steaming trials and similar individual operations, after which, on May 20, the divisions of the fleet will assemble as follows:

The battleship Wyoming and First division at Tompkinsville, The Second division in the North River, the Third Division at Rockport and the Fourth division at Newport.

After divisional exercises lasting for five days the divisions will return to these bases, except that the flagship and First division will go to Hampton Roads instead of Tompkinsville.

Beginning on June 3 divisional exercises will again be held, the battleships again returning to these bases on June 10, on which date the flagship and the First division will return to Tompkinsville.

After five days spent in divisional exercises, from June 12 to June 17, the entire fleet will reassemble at Newport on June 17 for squadron exercises off Newport from June 19 to July 1.

The week from July 1 to 8 will be spent in the usual Fourth of July calls at Atlantic coast ports for local celebrations.

On July 8 the battleships will again mobilize at Narragansett Bay and on July 10 will spend a five day period in fleet exercises.

Returning to Narragansett Bay on July 15, the next 4 weeks will be spent at anchor for machinery overhaul, ship drills and inspections, with the exception of five days from July 24 to 29, when the divisions will operate in a war game in an assigned area. Torpedo exercises will also be held, and the mining division and destroyers will engage in joint exercises.

One division of destroyers will cooperate with the army in joint operations in testing the defenses of Eastern New York.

Tactical exercises of the fleet will begin again on August 7 and will continue until August 12, when the battleships will return to Narragansett Bay for machinery overhauling, ship drills, coaling and provisions and conferences at the Naval War College preparatory to strategical manoeuvres from August 20 to September 1, when the entire fleet will proceed to the southern drill grounds for target practice until September 30, when the fleet will disperse to the home ports.

The mining division of the fleet will assemble in North River on May 15 and will cruise and engage in exercises on May 22 off New Haven, on June 1 off Provincetown and on June 5 off Plymouth, Mass.

After a brief call at Boston this mining division will continue its exercises off Salem, Cape Ann, Gloucester and Rockport until July 1. The Vestal and Solace will base on Newport and will move according to the needs of the fleet.

The vessels of the active destroyer flotilla upon the completion of repairs will make a reconnaissance of

FEEBLE MINDED ARE DANGEROUS

Dr. Bliss Says Family, Community or State Should Not Let Them Run at Large.

CRIME WHEN LEAST EXPECTED

Sees Serious Danger in Not Placing Them in Home—Mis-Fits in Social Adjustment

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 15.—That any family, community, state or nation that permits its feeble minded children to run at large is courting serious danger, was the gist of the speech of Dr. George S. Bliss, superintendent of the Indiana School For Feeble Minded Children at Fort Wayne, before the annual Conference of Charities and Correction here today.

There are the stupid children who, with charitable good-will, have so often been supposed to be able to take care of themselves but who, in reality, are likely to commit the gravest crimes or most immoral acts.

Dr. Bliss described such children as mis-fits and as clogs in the machinery of social adjustment. The sooner they are discovered and segregated in institutions for the feeble-minded, the better.

In an experience with more than 4,000 of this particular grade of the feeble-minded, I have never heard one of them blame himself for what he had done.

The most unbelievable debauchery and vice that some of the people are capable of, renders them most dangerous members of any community in which they are permitted to grow up, to live, and to reproduce their kind.

These children are often the butt of ridicule of the class, laughed at and teased by the other children who like to see them get mad. They are frequently precocious sexually, and may and often do come from the worst environments. Under such conditions it is to be expected that they have bad and vicious habits and practices, which they are only too ready to teach other children.

the New England coast, after which they will assemble at Gardiner's Bay and prepare to participate in the fleet operations in Narragansett Bay.

The active flotilla will hold target practice in Narragansett Bay from September 1 to November 1. The reserve destroyer flotilla will continue on neutrality, aviation and naval militia duty.

From July 1 to August 30 summer submarine exercises will be held from the base at New London, during which torpedo practice, quarterly engineering runs and oscillator tests will be held.

The cruiser squadron of the Atlantic fleet will continue police and patrol duty and will join in the fleet operations and hold target practice as opportunity presents.

No schedule of docking and overhauling is prescribed by the Navy Department because of the uncertainty of their periods of service.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentanel Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

HAROLD BEAVER HURT IN FALL FROM TRAIN

Extent of Injuries Are Not Learned Here Following Mishap at Crawfordsville

PARENTS AT HIS BEDSIDE

What the extent of the injuries to Harold Beaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beaver of southeastern Rush county, were Saturday night late when he fell off a Big Four train at Crawfordsville, where he attends Wabash college, had not been learned late this afternoon. They were of such a nature, however, that Mr. and Mrs. Beaver hurried to his bedside yesterday morning when they received news of the accident.

According to reports circulated here, he attempted to leap from the train before it reached the depot and misjudged the speed at which it was going. It was stated he was badly cut and bruised from being thrown on cinders. He had been in Indianapolis attending a Delta Tau Delta fraternity banquet.

HEARD AN AIRSHIP

Several persons were found today who declared that they heard an aeroplane pass over Rushville about two o'clock this morning. They arose from bed but could discern nothing in the sky because it was too dark. They saw no light of any sort. They declared they recognized the airship by the hum of the motor.

VAGS WILL SOON STEER CLEAR

At Present Bellevue, Ohio, Welcomes Them, but the Word Will Soon go Down The Line

ALL ARE COMPELLED TO WORK

Even Cook Their Own Meals Under System Started There—Stone Pile is First

(By United Press.) Bellevue O., May 13.—Only one have tramps or vagabonds you don't want just put them on the train for Bellevue. They'll be cheerfully received. The new official system here makes the advent of a few "hobs" a joyous occasion.

The bum is a municipal asset to Bellevue. Here are a few of the things they have done for this town of 6,000 souls:

Polished the streets; carried off the rubbish from every back yard; put the baseball diamond in fine condition and started a sewer system for the city. After the sewer is completed they'll be put to work paving new streets.

The nice thing about it all, he does these things willingly, cheerfully—after they've seen the stone pile. They are given their choice of the two.

Take the case of Banjo Charlie, who recently swung off side door pullman. While looking for the "welcome" chalk mark on a gate post or back door, he was greeted by Chief of Police Charles Buckland, who said cheerily:

"Come right up to the city hall and register. Glad to see you."

Banjo Charlie followed the line of least resistance.

"Want you to meet our Mayor," said Buckland.

"Good morning judge," said Charlie suspiciously.

"Good morning," responded Mayor H. C. Aurand, pleasantly. "Five and costs."

Then the new arrival got his first line of Bellevue's hospitality. He was wafted into the combination jail, dining hall and kitchen.

"Here's the makin's" said Chief Buckland, thrusting into Charlie's paw some eggs, bacon and a skillet. A small stove was in the corner.

"Do I gotta get my own breakfast?" queried Charlie, peevish.

"You certainly do," said Buckland. "You'll be doing lots of things for yourself before you leave."

After breakfast Charlie was led to the stone pile, a ball and chain affixed to his leg, and a heavy sledge placed in his hands.

"Would you mind sweeping a little mud off our streets this morning?" Charlie was asked, casually.

"I'd dearly love to," was the prompt response.

All tramps are given eleven days as soon as apprehended. They are required to do their own cooking. Vags are allowed to sell junk gleaned from the rubbish carted away, and keep the money.

Send your vags to Bellevue!

Maine Maid Is Expert With a 22 Caliber Rifle.

Prentiss, Me.—Birdie Sibley, eleven years old, can do almost anything that any other little girl of that age can do, and lots they can't or don't.

She is at the head of her classes in school, can cook a meal, sew and knit, make a garden, drive a horse, ride horseback and if the family were short of fresh meat could go out and get material enough for a rabbit stew almost any time with her little 22 rifle.

Birdie was out with her rifle recently and saw a fox running along the edge of the woods some distance off. She took careful aim just ahead of him and fired the shot, striking the fox in his foreleg, and he rolled over and over. Quickly running toward him and packing in another cartridge, Birdie made a quick shot, hitting the fox square in the head just as he was gathering himself to make off on three legs. She hopes to get another for next year and have a fine set of furs made.

County Council Rescinds Appropriation of $15,000 to Put New Roof on Court House

PASSES ONE FOR SAME SUM

"Passes Buck," to Commissioners Who Must Decide Whether or not to Redecorate

The county council "passed the buck" to the county commissioners Saturday afternoon and now if a new roof is placed on the court house, or the old one repaired and the court house decorated on the interior, it will be up to the board.

The county council listened attentively to William G. Andrews, an interior decorator of Clinton, Iowa, and after listening paved the way whereby a new roof may be placed on the building, or the roof may be repaired and Andrews given a job of decorating the interior. The ordinance originally appropriated $15,000 for a new roof was rescinded and a new ordinance passed.

The passage of this new ordinance gives the interior decorator a chance to land a nice fat job. It will be up to the commissioners to decide whether the court house needs an entirely new roof, or the old one repaired and the interior decorated. The new ordinance appropriates the sum of $15,000. Under the terms of the ordinance the money is to be used either for a new roof or for repairing the old one and decorating the interior.

The plan of Andrews was very simple. Under the old ordinance appropriating $15,000 for a new roof, the county commissioners were tied down simply to placing a new roof on the building. Under the change in plans the way is opened for spending $15,000 for repairing the roof and also getting the building redecorated.

The ordinance as drawn up by Andrews and presented to the county council is as follows: "An ordinance appropriating $15,000 for a new roof or interior and exterior repairs to roof and general repairs to the exterior and the restoring of the plaster and ornamental plaster, damaged in the interior, the decoration of all walls and ceilings and varnishing of woodwork and furniture throughout the building."

By getting this ordinance passed Andrews will have a chance to submit plans for repairing the roof and decorating. The plans as originally drawn up by the architect for the new roof will stand. It simply develops into a question of what plan to follow—either a new roof or repair the old one and decorate. If a new roof is placed on the building there can be no decorating this year.

Roof experts have told the commissioners that the old roof cannot be repaired with any degree of satisfaction. The architect would not attempt to draw up plans to repair the roof, believing that the only solution is a new roof. Andrews, the man who talked the council into changing the ordinance, was the original decorator when the court house was built. He made a statement Saturday that he could save the county $10,000 on the job. The question promises to attract much attention before it is definitely settled.

The county council did not get to the appropriations for the bridges and repairs. Another meeting will be necessary as the $15,000 appropriated Saturday was the maximum for one day.

Recent Act of Congress, Recruiting Officer Believes, Will Help in Present Propaganda

LIEUTENANT WRITES HERE

Edward R. Coppock, first lieutenant of cavalry, recruiting officer at the U. S. army station in Indianapolis, has written here calling attention to a new act of congress which, it is believed, will prove a great incentive to enlistment. Great interest attaches to the subject just now because of the effort of federal authorities to increase the regular army, anticipating preparedness legislation. The lieutenant cites an act of congress approved May 4 of this year as follows:

"That the President is hereby authorized to appoint cadets to the United States Military Academy from among enlisted men of the Regular Army between the ages of nineteen and twenty-two, to be selected under such regulations as the President may prescribe."

National Correspondence School Asks $100 of Warren P. Elder in Payment for Books

FAILS TO MEET PAYMENTS

The National Correspondence School filed suit today against Warren P. Elder on a contract demanding $100. It is alleged in the complaint that on February 16, 1915 Mr. Elder entered into a contract with the plaintiff company, purchasing a set of books called "The American and English Law Library," the contract price being $75.00, payable at the rate of $2.50 per month. By obtaining the books, it is alleged that he was enrolled as a student of the correspondence school and was entitled to a complete three years course. It is alleged that the defendant failed to meet the monthly payments after June 17, 1915. The complaint is in three paragraphs and was prepared by Chauncey Duncan.

Sam Blair, who has been here for about a year as district agent of the Aetna Life Insurance company, has been detailed to some special work with the state agency of the company and will have a desk in the office in the Terminal building in Indianapolis. RUSHVILLE BOY FINISHES THIRD

RICHMOND WINS THE PRIZE

Greensburg Judges Decide Contest, Much to Dissatisfaction of Rushville Delegation

The Rushville delegation of nearly a hundred high school students and other people at Greensburg Saturday night was pulling hard for Duane Reed to win the annual oratorical contest for Rushville, and when the decision of the judges was to be announced and Reed's name was called first, the pent-up energy of the rooters was ready to break loose. The official announcer hesitated. But when he said, a disconsolate crowd started for the door because he said third.

William Haberkorn of Richmond, speaking on "The Challenge of Crime," was given first place and Richard Hall of Shelbyville, whose subject was "The Mercy that Condemns," was ranked second. Robert Mason of Greenfield was fourth. His topic was "The Battle of Gettysburg."

It was a very sadly disappointed crowd of Rushville supporters that came home late Saturday night because they had an idea that Reed was going to win after they had heard all four orators. Reed had the worst position, first but he gave his speech well and was highly complimented for it.

The Rushville crowd was amazed at the poor support given the oratorical by the Greensburg people and the high school. Although there was no contestant from Greensburg, it was thought by those from here attending that there would have been at least a dozen or so Greensburg citizens present. When the contest opened Rushville people composed fully fifty per cent of the audience. Rushville's delegation was the largest of any and yelled lustily and sang for its representative.

The judges were all from Greensburg, a practice not followed heretofore by the association. It is said that Rushville protested against "picking up" judges on the spur of the moment because in the past special attention had been paid to get experienced judges.

Those who placed the contestants were the Rev. L. E. Murr, pastor of the Second M. E. church of Greensburg; the Rev. F. Z. Burkette, pastor of the Christian church there, and Miss Clara Brown, teacher of English in the Greensburg high school. They judged on mannerism, articulation, gestures, voice and preparation.

The two ministers gave the Richmond boy first, but Miss Brown ranked him third. Her choice was Hall of Shelbyville, who also received a second and a third. Reed was given third by one preacher and second by the other two judges. He was just one point under Hall's total. Mason was placed fourth by all judges. The grades were not made public.

Greensburg has a beautiful new high school building in which the contest was held. The event took place in the assembly room of the building.

TO BE PRECEDENT IN OTHER CASES

Decision in Suit of Creamery Package Manufacturing Co., Vs T. E. McAllister Will be Criterion

NINE SIMILAR ONES ON FILE

Defendant, Who is Sued to Compel Payment on Stock, Alleges Thing Was Misrepresented

The case of the Creamery Package Manufacturing Company against T. E. McAllister was tried today in the circuit court before Judge Sparks and a jury. The case is on a note and the demand is $100, but this is not so important as the criterion to be established, which may decide nine other cases of a similar nature now pending.

The complaint alleged that McAllister subscribed for some stock to the now defunct creamery and gave his note to guarantee payment. It is alleged that he never paid the note and the suit is to force payment. It was expected that the case would go to the jury this afternoon.

A total of ten of these cases were filed and this is the first one to be tried. The case is important to the other cases pending. The defense maintains that a representative of the creamery company misrepresented the stock sale and the proposed value of the creamery plant when completed and in operation.

In the answer to the complaint alleged that a J. J. Kidwell had charge of the stock sale and that many names placed on his paper were done for effect and were not genuine subscribers of stock. The jury for the most part is made up of business men. It is now difficult to get farmers on juries because they are so busy. The plaintiff's side of the case was presented by Kiplinger and Smith and John A. Tittsworth represented the defendant. The evidence in this suit is expected to be the same as that in the others.

The jury was composed of the following men: Charles Moore, Ferd Retherford, W. H. Smelser, Alva Newhouse, G. H. Meyer, W. E. Jones, W. E. Wallace, George H. Havens, John Heeb, James Rees, J. W. Hogsett and Frank Flint.

Nina Lewis, administratrix of the estate of the late John G. Lewis, was given a judgment for $31 and costs against Erma Bussell. It was an account suit and the original demand was $200.

CONVINCED FIRES WERE INCENDIARY

United States Authorities on Border Reach Conclusion After Report is Received

BLAZES ARE AN HOUR APART

(By United Press.)
San Antonio, Texas, May 15.—The two fires which started at widely separated points on Ft. Bliss military reservation at El Paso Saturday night were probably of incendiary origin, General Funston announced today after receiving the official report. Funston was badly disturbed.

The fires broke out more than an hour apart and destroyed three stables and a store-house. Tents and several machine guns were lost in the store house fire and in the other four horses were burned, General Bell reported. Civilians aided the soldiers in extinguishing the fire.

CASEMENT IS PUT ON TRIAL IN LONDON

Testimony American Priest Tried to Get German Recruits From Irish Prisoners Offered

IS CHARGED WITH TREASON

London, May 15.—Calm and smiling, Sir Roger Casement, once a favorite in the British consular service went to trial today in Bow street police court on the charges of high treason, punishable by hanging. It was the first high treason trial held in the court since the Boer war and the court room was packed. In his opening statement Attorney General Smith declared the Crown would prove that Sir Roger plotted not only the Irish rebellion but planned to land expeditions in Ireland and at several places on the British coast. Casement received the charge calmly.

Testimony that an American priest, Father Nicholson, aided Sir Roger in attempting to secure recruits for the German army from Irish prisoners at the Lemberg prison camp was offered by Daniel O'Brien, an exchange prisoner, this afternoon O'Brien said there were 25,000 Irish prisoners at Lemberg but that few of them yielded to Father Nicholson's persuasion. Another exchanged Irish prisoner gave similar testimony.

ALLEGES $3,500 IS DUE AS COMMISSION

Maynard M. Erb Files Suit Against Jasper D. Case For Part he Says he Played in Sale

AN ECHO OF A RECENT DEAL

Maynard M. Erb filed suit against Jasper D. Case this afternoon on a contract, demanding $3,500. It is alleged in the complaint that he entered into a verbal contract May 19, 1915 with Mr. Case whereby he was to act as agent and sell the Case lumber yards in this city. He alleges that he made the sale in the name of Mr. Case, the consideration being $39,730.

The complaint avers that the terms of the sale were complied with and the property transferred. Mr. Erb states that his commission was to be $3,500 and that Case refused to pay him. The complaint is in two paragraphs. Raymond Springer, and McKee, Wiles and Elliott of Connersville represent the plaintiff.

ARE COMPELLED TO DO GYM WORK

For This Reason Average Swiss Man
is Better Physically Than
Men of This Country.

GOVERNMENT PRESCRIBES

Warlike Sports Are Encouraged and
Boys Are Taught How to Shoot a Rifle.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Berne May 13—The average Swiss
man is better physically and as a soldier than the average American
male, thanks to the system of compulsory military training in Switzerland.

"Gets under the hide, a statement
like this, but it's true.

Every male Swiss can shoot
straighter, run longer, march farther and endure more than the average male American. You have only
to know what the Swiss is taught to do and what the average American isn't taught to do to realize that this is true.

Every Swiss school boy MUST go to a gymnasium. Every Swiss school must HAVE a gymnasium. It doesn't matter whether it's a church
school or a business college or a fancy, high-priced school for little
Swiss Lord Fauntleroy; it MUST
have a gymnasium.

In this gymnasium MUST be taught daily, certain exercises prescribed by the government. These are the highly scientific product of
the deepest study in physical development.

The average American doesn't
even know what these exercises are.
Now and then, it is true, after he's
fattening up at thirty, the American
answers an advertisement and purchases some alleged scientific physical culture book and follows the instructions therein.

Any Swiss school boy of ten could
teach him a world of valuable things
in this line.

By the time a Swiss school boy is
twenty he has developed his physique to its high point.

He has made his body as fine and strong as his particular body can
be made.

This has been done scientifically
and meanwhile, the call of his splendid muscles has driven him to football and other sports.

That crowded Polo Grounds in
New York makes you sick, when you look over these Swiss. You couldn't get 10,000 healthy Swiss to sit
around of an afternoon watching
OTHER men play a game. Each man wants to play himself. Hundreds of little sport centers are always busy.

That cheering grandstand at the Polo Grounds, filled with men that couldn't run to first base without
puffing, is a disgusting thought, here
in the war country.

Anything in the world is better than that. Any pacifist must admit that even learning how to shoot, out
in the country—learning how to
shoot with the intention of killing an enemy some day if you have to—is better than the average American's silly MENTAL participation in baseball. Or, if you're too much of a baseball fan, makes it kelly pool.
The average Swiss boy can out-
shoot the average American boy.

HELD UP WEDDING

Couple Ate Ham and Eggs Waiting For Marrying Justice.

LOST A NIGHT AUTO RACE.

Greenwich (Conn.) Justice Refused
Please For Him to Get Up, and So
Couple Got Something to Eat and
Waited in City Hall Till Morning.

New York.—Traveling a good part
of the night by automobile only to arrive
too late to be married and breaking the
monotony of the long wait till morning
by eating ham and eggs ordered from a lunch wagon, Mr. and Mrs. Earl B.
Fisher arrived in this city, having been
joined in matrimony early in the morning by Justice of the Peace Albert F.
Mead at Greenwich, Conn.

Mr. Fisher is from Providence, R. I.,
and Mrs. Fisher is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Julius Livernols of Worcester, Mass. She was educated in a convent school at Nicolet, Canada. They met in Providence recently at a dance.
Mr. Fisher is connected with a fire-
proofing company.

When seen at their hotel the young people said the courtship in its serious
phase had started only two months before their marriage.

"Three days after deciding to enter
the matrimonial sea we came to New York," Mrs. Fisher said, "and our original plan was to be married in Jersey City. But we were told that a twenty-
four hour interval between the license
and the marriage was required in Jersey, so we telephoned Captain Tulbert,
the chief of police at Greenwich, and
he said to come right ahead.

"We set out shortly after dinner and
after driving through the rain arrived
in Greenwich about 2 o'clock. Captain Tulbert received us at the town hall,
but at that late hour the justice of the
peace, who was necessary to the ceremony, refused to be wakened. So we waited in the town hall."

"About 4 o'clock," said Mr. Fisher,
"we all decided we were quite hungry
and went out and had 'ham and' at a
lunch wagon, this being the only thing
in sight resembling a restaurant.

"When the day got under way the justice of the peace appeared and we were married. We started back to
New York and had a real breakfast."

Miss Crystal Shepherd, a moving picture actress, and Ray Howard of New York were the witnesses. The eloping
was done in Mr. Howard's limousine.

"There was no particular objection
to our getting married," said the bride,
"but we feared Earl might soon have to go to China in connection with his work, and we weren't taking any
chances."

club in his neighborhood.

The club is supported by the community. His shooting costs him
nothing.

Let an American boy get the idea
that he wants to be a sharpshooter.
Where can he learn?

Where, in most cases, will he find
the money to buy his rifle and ammunition?

Rich American boys, true enough,
have opportunity to learn the art of shooting. Good shooting is among the accomplishments of almost every
rich American youth.

But the average American boy, no
matter how deeply he may be stirred
by his desire to learn how to defend himself and his country in war, is
without a chance unless he later in life develops political or social ambition, and goes into the state militia.

In his shooting, as in his physical training, the Swiss youth finds a world of fun. There are shooting matches in various neighborhoods.

Finally, the champions of a canton are weeded out. They shoot
against each other in semi-finals
and every year at Berne there is a great national shooting match that draws throngs of husky shooting
men from every corner of the little country.

Warlike sports, says the pacifist.
Yes, but it's a sport that keeps Switzerland from war. And baseball and cricket never kept any
country from war.

Court, will on

Saturday, June 3d, 1916

at one o'clock p. m. of said day and from day to day thereafter until sold, offer for sale to the highest and best bidder, the following described real estate in said county of Rush, State of Indiana, to-wit:
The southwest quarter of Section 10; also the south half of the northwest

At the law office of Sam. L. Trabue, Rushville, Ind.

This real estate consists of residence property at 820 W. Eighth St., Rushville, Indiana, and 388.58 acres of exceptionally good, level, agricultural land, sufficiently undulating for excellent drainage, which is provided by two large tile drains crossing each tract, and sufficient laterals. It is equipped with two complete sets of farm buildings, is well fenced and is supplied with excellent water by eight wells, three being deep water wells. This is burr oak, poplar and sugar tree land, and is very productive of all kinds of grain and grasses.
It is all under a high state of cultivation except about 35 acres of woodland, part of which is on each tract and part of which is well set in blue-grass. By judicious crop rotation, clover growing and fertilization this land has retained

FRANCE IS VERY GREEN.

Every Possible Shade Is Shown In Its Amazing Vegetation.

It might fairly be said that the general impression France as a whole leaves upon the beholder is—green. Perpetually moist of climate—except in the south—endowed with heavy and continuous rainfalls and having a temperature which is astonishingly even year in and year out, the country is like an enormous hothouse.

The result is a study in greens of every conceivable and inconceivable shade. Verdure and foliage range from greens that are gray or black to greens that are hardly more than yellow. From the hardy pastures high upon the sides of the towering Pelvoux range, thousands of feet above the sea, to the cactus and agaves and olives that grow at the water's edge the verdant nuances are a revelation in rural coloring.

But France is not all green either. That is only the background, the filler, as it were, for a warm toned picture full of high lights, touched with the gold of grain, the ruddy tiles of ancient roofs, the fiery spatter of poppies, the tawny flood of a river or the steely thread of a brook, and on the glistening southern shore, with cliffs as red as any soil New Jersey boasts, water like melted sapphires, villas covered with majolica tiles that make the beholder rub his eyes and wonder if he is dreaming the amazing ineptitudes of style and color that strive to but cannot shatter the harmony of creation.—National Geographic Magazine.

A Miniature Holland.

England has a Holland in miniature near the mouth of the Thames. Canvey Island, beloved of holiday makers, was until three centuries ago almost submerged, but in 1623 a Dutch dyker named Croppenburg erected a high sea wall and cut drains, which converted it into rich and arable land. Many of the Dutch workmen engaged in the work settled on the reclaimed land, and the Dutch aspect of the island is preserved until this day.—London Chronicle.

So Shy!

"That's a nasty cut on your temple," an employer said to his clerk. "How did it happen?"

"I had words with my wife," the clerk answered.

"Your wife gave you that?" exclaimed the employer. "And she used to be such a shy girl!"

"So she is now," said the clerk. "She's always shying, and she never misses."—Washington Star.

Amusements

"The Living Lie," is the title of the first picture at the Gem tonight. It is a three part drama featuring Mina Cunard and Jack Livingston. It is a story of Paris' Latin quarter which is centered on an artist's model. The other picture is a drama "Blazing the Trail." Fred Charch is featured and it is said to be an unusual picture. Tomorrow, matinee and night the tenth episode of "The Girl and the Game" will be shown. This one is entitled "A Dash Through the Flames."

"The Perkins' Pep Producers," the title of the sixth chapter of "The Chronicles of Bloom Center" promises to furnish the usual number of laughs at the Mystic tonight. Bloom Center advertises for a trained nurse and when the pretty wife of the owner of the patent medicine answers the ad all male members of the little town become ill. It is said to be a very funny production. One other reel promises to make this a wonderful program.

The Princess offers the five reel feature "The Bigger Man," for the program tonight. Henry Kolker, the celebrated actor and an all-star cast produce this picture. It is a powerful sociological study portraying the selfish and snobbish barriers which class rears against class in this country in defiance of the principles laid down by the founders of American liberty. The theme is well handled and the plot one that will please, even if it does not startle in its denouement. Tomorrow the three act drama "A Man's Work" will be shown.

A penny supper will be given, Wednesday May 17th at the St. Pauls M. E. church, by the Watson class.

Tire Wear is Like Shoe Wear

A heavy man is hard on shoe leather; a heavy car is hard on rubber.

Some people are easier on shoes than others. They have a light, springy step that prolongs wear.

So it is with the Franklin car. Its light weight saves the tires from hard pounding; its flexible, springy construction softens the shocks that the tires must stand.

This is the reason for the national Franklin owners' average of 9630 miles per set of tires. And also why punctures are few and blowouts almost unheard of.

War Diminishes Labor

The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington Headquarters:

"Men who desire to take a comprehensive view of present day economic conditions should not overlook the effect of changes in immigration due to the war in Europe. The latest statistics issued by the Department of Labor show that the net increase in our population by reason of movement of aliens, for the past three fiscal years, has been as follows:

Year Ending,	Increase.
June 30, 1913	815,303
June 30, 1914	769,276
June 30, 1915	50,070

"The figures for the year ending June 30, 1916, will show an increase of only about 50,000. It is obvious, therefore, that the European war has cut off a net increase of a million and a quarter in our population, mostly of the laboring class. If that million and a quarter people had been added to our population, and the war had not come to shut off imports of merchandise and create an unprecedented market for our goods, no sincere and thoughtful men can doubt that we should now be facing a more serious unemployment problem than that which confronted us prior to the outbreak of the war.

"The Democratic press is gloating over the scarcity of labor and the increase in wages in some lines of business, inferentially assuming that the party in power is entitled to count this condition as a political asset. Men who are getting employment where they were previously idle, or who are getting increases in wages, are not told why this change has come about.

"Since economic problems will be the most influential factors in the election next November, and since it is of the greatest importance that in a democracy the people have all the facts upon which to base their conclusions, it becomes the duty of every man discussing present-day industrial conditions to place these statistics before his audience or his readers.

"While it may be 'pitiless' to give publicity to the real basis for such prosperity as we now enjoy, the American voter is entitled to have the facts."

TODAY'S EDITORIAL.

This is the official day for the Straw Hat to come out of the haberdashery and see its own shadow.

The Straw Hat is a glorified bunch of hay. It is supposed to be worn upon the head, but it frequently graces the ear, the eyebrow or the back of the neck.

Fat men do not wear Straw Hats; they just set them on their heads when they're not fanning.

The Straw Hat is temperamental. If it does not like a man, it will fly off and the owner must put it on a leash, which he fastens to his coat with a black, oval button that looks like a liver pill.

Next to a dog fight, an escaped straw hat in a wind storm is the most exciting thing in the world.

The Straw Hat eats five dollar bills. If you don't believe it, get one today and see.

SALOON IS HIT BY TWO SPEAKERS

Insurance Man at Conference of Charities Declares Industry and Inebriety Don't Mix

SAID TO HURT WORKING MEN

Physical Care of Child in Rural Schools Was Another Subject Discussed.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, May 15.—Industry and inebriety do not go together, according to Alexander Fleisher, director of the welfare division of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company at the meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Correction here today.

"We will not tolerate anyone in our establishment who makes noticeable use of intoxicants." This and similar extracts were quoted by the speaker in a review of the institute. The investigation which he reported covered 750,000 employees. Of 7,025 firms reporting 3,527 have established regulations covering the use of alcohol by their employees. Nearly 700 of these demand that no employee use intoxicants either on or off duty. In concluding, Mr. Fleisher said:

"This analysis indicates that a number of employers are making up their minds on the use of alcohol by their employees. They are not considering the detailed and intricate questions of the effects of alcohol on the mind and body. They find the non-drinker the more satisfactory employee."

Speaking on life insurance and drinking habits, Arthur Hunter, actuary of the New York Life Insurance company said that the mortality among those who at date of their application for insurance took two glasses of whiskey a day but did not drink to excess, was 80 per cent above the normal. The workingmen and the alcohol problem was the subject of an address by Rev. Charles Stelzle of New York City. He said "The saloon as much never helped the workingmen to clean fight against child labor, in favor of higher wages, and better shop conditions. When a strike for these and other reforms is in progress the wise labor leader orders his men to keep away from the saloon."

The physical care of the child in rural schools was the subject of a section meeting addressed by Dr. Taliaferro Clark, at this morning's session. Other subjects considered by the Conference were classification of the feeble-minded, community service, and social research at public institutions.

Danville, Ind., May 15.—Delegates to the seventy-seventh annual convention of the Christian Churches of Indiana who gathered here today heard a plea for greater co-operation by "shepherds of all folds" by the Rev. George H. Clarke of Indianapolis.

Remarking upon the avidity which the public reads of ministers "gone wrong," Mr. Clarke urged ministers of all faiths to aid each other in purifying their rank and upholding the hands of righteous ministers.

SIXTH DISTRICT WILL TAKE PART

Students at Earlham Will Have
Roles in Gigantic Shakespeare
Celebration May 20.

TO REPRESENT MANY PLAYS

School Children of Richmond Join in Movement—Considered an Educational Feature.

Richmond, Ind., May 15.—Practically every student of the Sixth district enrolled at Earlham college will take part in the gigantic Shakespeare celebration which is to be held on the open air theatre of the college on Saturday, May 20. The college enrollment was not large enough to supply all the characters for the Shakespeare celebration and so the clubs of the city have been asked to lend their assistance.

Almost every play Shakespeare wrote will be presented in a pageant that is to be the outstanding feature of the celebration, which will be the largest Shakespeare anniversary celebration in eastern Indiana. Even the school children of Richmond have been called on to help.

Hundreds of children, trained by Supervisor Nohr, will give the folk dances of the time of Queen Elizabeth and Shakespeare. Last year they presented a series of dances in the Coliseum that attracted so much attention that hundreds of spectators asked that they be repeated. The children will dance and take part in the celebration on the Earlham campus.

Residents of all the cities near Richmond have been asked to visit the college on Saturday May 20 and see the celebration.

The college authorities are especially anxious that school teachers and parents join the thousands who will attend, as the celebration is one of the real educational features offered this year in this section of the state.

Professor Starts Out to Learn More
of the Mohicans Than Cooper
Ever Wrote.

WILL VISIT LAKE OSTEGO.

(By United Press.)
Cooperstown, N. Y., May 15.—J. Fenimore Cooper wrote "The Last of the Mohicans," but it wasn't last. Armed with spade and pickaxe, Professor Warren K. Moorhead of Phillips Andover academy and his expedition started out today to learn more about the Mohicans than Cooper ever wrote.

The party, which includes Alanson Skinner, formerly of the American Museum of Natural History of New York and now of the George Hay Museum of American Indians; Ernest O. Sudgen of Orland, Me. and several others left today to examine the shores of Lake Ostego, where the Indians of Cooper lived centuries ago.

The party plans to go down the Susquehanna river in light skiffs, exploring the banks and adjoining fields which were at one time the hunting grounds of the Mohicans. The expedition will work up the tributaries of the Susquehanna, including the Unadilla river which is rich in Indian lore.

Professor Moorhead is certain that his expedition will uncover new Indian lore and that many facts valuable to the history of the American Indian will be learned.

LAKE TRAFFIC WILL BE HEAVY

Shipping There is Expected to be Greatest in History, According
to Officials

FREIGHT RATES ADVANCED

Value Expected to Reach Billion
Dollars—Heaviest is Ore, Coal,
Grain and Lumber.

Cleveland, May 15.—Traffic on the Great Lakes will be the greatest in history, this season, George Marr, secretary of the Lake Carriers' association, told the United Press today. Prosperity makes shipping.

The estimated total value of the traffic this season will be $1,250,000,000 as against a record mark of $950,000,000 last season. The 500 freighters in the Great Lakes fleet, of which 80 per cent is managed in Cleveland, will be taxed to capacity.

The following estimate compiled by Marr shows what is expected in six main lines of freight this year as compared with 1915.

Iron Ore, 55,000,000 tons in 1916; 47,500,000 tons in 1915.

Coal, 33,000,000 tons, in 1916; 26,000,000 tons in 1915.

Grain, 14,000,000 tons, in 1916; 9,000,000 tons, in 1915.

Lumber, 475,000,000 Feet; 460,000,000 feet, in 1915.

Flour, 20,000,000 Bbls. in 1916; 15,000,000 bbls. in 1915.

General Merchandise, 2,000,000 tons, in 1916; 1,595,000 tons in 1915. With the increase in traffic, freight rates have advanced. On iron ore rates have advanced from 40 to 50 cents net a ton; on coal from 30 to 35 cents net per ton. On grain the rate had advanced from two cents to six cents per ton.

Among the larger fleets on the lakes are: Pittsburgh Steamship Co., a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corporation, with 100 freighters, some of them 600 feet long; Interlake Steamship Co., 52; Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co., 22; Hutchinson and Co., 25 Great Lakes Transportation Co., 19, and W. H. Becker, 17.

START LONG TRIP IN AEROPLANE

Expect to Make Flight From Los Angeles to New York in Six Days Time.

TRYING OUT NEW DEVICE

Electrical Expert Has Automatic
Equilibrium Device That he is Demonstrating

(By United Press.)
Los Angeles, Cal., May 15.—Two thousand feet over Nigger Slough near here today, two men waved adieu to a neck craning throng and headed east toward the Sierra Madre mountains in an aeroplane. Their destination was New York.

Oscar Brindley, veteran air pilot, and A. J. Macy, inventor settled back in their seats, to let the first self balancing plane in America fly them from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

The two men plan to cover nearly 4,000 miles ending their ride at Mineola, L. I., next Sunday. Just six days.

Macy, a Chicago electrical engineer, by the cross continent flight plans to demonstrate to the government of France, England and United States, a mechanism of his own invention which will balance an aeroplane perfectly.

The pilot has but to steer the plane in the desired direction—up or down, to left or right, then relax and let the automatic equilibrium device keep the plane on a flying keel.

Neither Macy or Brindley make any exaggerate claims for the device.

"Nothing could be a fairer test than the flight from Los Angeles to New York in six days," they say.

The plane is a hundred horse power Martin tractor of the military type; especially equipped for the trip.

The route taken will be via, Salt Lake, Denver, Omaha, St. Louis, Chicago and New York.

COMMANDER IS GIVEN PUNISHMENT

Well Defined Rumor in Berlin Officer
of U-Boat Sinking Sussex
Was Punished.

HUMILIATION IN GERMANY.

(By United Press.)
The Hague, May 15.—Severe punishment was meted out to the commander of the German submarine which attacked the Sussex, it is generally believed in well informed circles in Berlin, though no official report on the nature of the punishment has been made public.

This belief is made largely on the indignation felt in Germany over the U-boat commander's deception. His report was implicitly believed until the American government produced conclusive evidence that the channel packet was sunk by a German submarine. In view of this evidence Germans feel that they were put in a rather humiliating position. It is not overstating the case that the submarine commander's deception caused as much indignation in Berlin as in the United States.

VILLA'S DOG FOUND.

Cleveland, May 16.—Villa's whereabouts may be unknown, but his dog has been found. It's Cleveland, the pet of Mrs. Martin Sanders. He's a Chihuahua, bred puppy named Chiquita—Spanish for small. When Villa left Juarez he left the pup with his brother, who gave him to a horse exhibitor at the races, who sold the dog to Mrs. Sanders.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets are
a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't irritate the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dizziness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

MONEY IN SALONIKI.

Why the Merest Glimpse of It Will Produce a Near Riot.

In normal times, if Saloniki is ever normal, she has a population of 120,000, and every one of those 120,000 is personally interested in any one else who engages or may be about to engage in a money transaction. In New York if a horse falls down, there is at once an audience of a dozen persons. In Saloniki the downfall of a horse is nobody's business, but a copper coin changing hands is everybody's. Of this local characteristic John T. McCutcheon and I made a careful study, and the result of our investigations produced certain statistics.

If in Saloniki you buy a newspaper from a newsboy, of the persons passing two will stop; if at an open shop you buy a package of cigarettes five people will look over your shoulders; if you pay your cab driver his fare you block the sidewalk, and if you try to change a 100 franc note you cause a riot. In each block there are nearly a half dozen money changers. They sit in little shops as narrow as a doorway, and in front of them is a showcase filled with all the moneys of the world. It is not alone the sight of your 100 franc note that enchants the crowd. That collects the crowd, but what holds the crowd is that it knows there are twenty different kinds of money, all current in Saloniki, into which your note can be changed. And they know the money changer knows that and that you do not. So each man advises you—not because he does not want to see you cheated (between you and the money changer he is neutral), but because he can no more keep out of a money deal than can a fly pass a sugar bowl.

The men on the outskirts of the crowd ask, "What does he offer?" The lucky ones in the front row seats call back, "A hundred and eighty drachmas." The rear ranks shout with indignation: "It is robbery!" "It is because he changes his money in Venizelos street!" "He is paying the money changer's rent!" "In the Jewish quarter they are giving nineteen!" "He is too lazy to walk two miles for a drachma!" "Then let him go to the Greek Papanastassion!"—Richard Harding Davis in Scribner's.

OFFICE BOYS MADE SKATERS.

Some Use Bicycles in Long Hauls of Bridgeport Plant.

Bridgeport, Conn.—Office boys at the Remington Arms and Ammunition company's plant must have athletic capabilities to meet the requirements of the job. The corridors in the plant are so long that it is a considerable journey between many of the offices. The company has recently gone into the traffic problem, and the result is that twenty-five bicycles and eighty-five pairs of rubber roller skates are being used by the 110 office boys in the plant. The skates are noiseless, so that a youngster can whirl in and be gone before the recipient of the message picks it up.

Broken Jaw Causes Starvation.

Woodland, Cal., March 15.—A man died in a local hospital recently as a result of injuries sustained when he fell from the county bridge at Tancred. He suffered a compound fracture of the jaw, since when he had not been able to masticate food or to take nourishment properly. Gradually he wasted away, literally from slow starvation. The victim was an expert orchardist and had lived in Woodland for several years.

FLEET STARTS LONG PROGRAM

Will Spend Total of Five Months Trying to Show People How It Can Fight.

TARGET PRACTICE PLANNED
Submarines Will Come in For Their Part—Will Continue Until November 1.

(By United Press.)
Washington, May 15.—The Atlantic fleet of Uncle Sam's navy started out today to cut circles around itself to show the American people what it really can do in the way of scrapping. The exhibition, in one form or another, will continue until November 1.

The official program provides for fleet and division exercises off the North Atlantic in the vicinity of Newport, together with a war game in conjunction with the army from July 24 to 29.

Target practice will be held on the southern drill grounds from September 1 to 30, after which the fleet will be scattered to the home ports for docking and minor repairs.

Beginning today the battleships of the fleet will operate singly for steaming trials and similar individual operations, after which, on May 20, the divisions of the fleet will assemble as follows:

The battleship Wyoming and First division at Tompkinsville, The Second division in the North River, the Third Division at Rockport and the Fourth division at Newport.

After divisional exercises lasting for five days the divisions will return to these bases, except that the flagship and First division will go to Hampton Roads instead of Tompkinsville.

Beginning on June 3 divisional exercises will again be held, the battleships again returning to these bases on June 10, on which date the flagship and the First division will return to Tompkinsville.

After five days spent in divisional exercises, from June 12 to June 17, the entire fleet will reassemble at Newport on June 17 for squadron exercises off Newport from June 19 to July 1.

The week from July 1 to 8 will be spent in the usual Fourth of July calls at Atlantic coast ports for local celebrations.

On July 8 the battleships will again mobilize at Narragansett Bay and on July 10 will spend a five day period in fleet exercises.

Returning to Narragansett Bay on July 15, the next 4 weeks will be spent at anchor for machinery overhaul, ship drills and inspections, with the exception of five days from July 24 to 29, when the divisions will operate in a war game in an assigned area Torpedo exercises will also be held, and the mining division and destroyers will engage in joint exercises.

One division of destroyers will co-operate with the army in joint operations in testing the defenses of Eastern New York.

Tactical exercises of the fleet will begin again on August 7 and will continue until August 12, when the battleships will return to Narragansett Bay for machinery overhauling, ship drills, coaling and provisions and conferences at the Naval War College preparatory to strategic manoeuvres from August 20 to September 1, when the entire fleet will proceed to the southern drill grounds for target practice until September 30, when the fleet will disperse to the home ports.

The mining division of the fleet will assemble in North River on May 15 and will cruise and engage in exercises on May 22 off New Haven, on June 1 off Provincetown and on June 5 off Plymouth, Mass.

After a brief call at Boston this mining division will continue its exercises off Salem, Cape Ann, Gloucester and Rockport until July 1. The Vestal and Solace will base on Newport and will move according to the needs of the fleet.

Feeble Minded ARE DANGEROUS

Dr. Bliss Says Family, Community or State Should Not Let Them Run at Large.

CRIME WHEN LEAST EXPECTED
Them in Home—Mis-Fits in Social Adjustment

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 15.—That any family, community, state or nation that permits its feeble minded children to run at large is courting serious danger, was the gist of the speech of Dr. George S. Bliss, superintendent of the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Children at Fort Wayne, before the annual Conference of Charities and Correction here today.

There are the stupid children who, with charitable good-will, have so often been supposed to be able to take care of themselves but who, in reality, are likely to commit the gravest crimes or most immoral acts.

Dr. Bliss described such children as mis-fits and as clogs in the machinery of social adjustment. The sooner they are discovered and segregated in institutions for the feeble-minded, the better.

In an experience with more than 10,000 of this particular grade of the feeble-minded, I have never heard one of them blame himself for what he had done.

The most unbelievable debauchery and vice that some of the people are capable of, renders them most dangerous members of any community in which they are permitted to grow up, to live, and to reproduce their kind.

These children are often the butt of ridicule of the class, laughed at and teased by the other children who like to see them get mad. They are frequently precocious sexually, and may and often do come from the worst environments. Under such conditions it is to be expected that they have bad and vicious habits and practices, which they are only too ready to teach other children.

The New England coast, after which they will assemble at Gardiner's Bay and prepare to participate in the fleet operations in Narragansett Bay.

The active flotilla will hold target practice in Narragansett Bay from September 1 to November 1. The reserve destroyer flotilla will continue on neutrality, aviation and naval militia duty.

From July 1 to August 30 summer submarine exercises will be held from the base at New London, during which torpedo practice, quarterly engineering runs and oscillator tests will be held.

The cruiser squadron of the Atlantic fleet will continue police and patrol duty and will join in the fleet operations and hold target practice as opportunity presents.

No schedule of docking and overhauling is prescribed by the Navy Department because of the uncertainty of their periods of service.

NO MORE WOOLY STEERS.
Dickinson, N. D., May 16.—Because there are no more wild steers in the wild and wooly west, the B. P. O. E., state convention, meeting here today, had to send all the way to wild and wooly Mexico to get one to be used in a pageant tomorrow.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentinel Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

HAROLD BEAVER HURT IN FALL FROM TRAIN

Extent of Injuries Are Not Learned Here Following Mishap at Crawfordsville

What the extent of the injuries to Harold Beaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beaver of southeastern Rush county, were Saturday night late when he fell off a Big Four train at Crawfordsville, where he attends Wabash college, had not been learned late this afternoon. They were of such a nature, however, that Mr. and Mrs. Beaver hurried to his bedside yesterday morning when they received news of the accident.

According to reports circulated here, he attempted to leap from the train before it reached the depot and misjudged the speed at which it was going. It was stated he was badly cut and bruised from being thrown on cinders. He had been in Indianapolis attending a Delta Tau Delta fraternity banquet.

HEARD AN AIRSHIP

Several persons were found today who declared that they heard an aeroplane pass over Rushville about two o'clock this morning. They arose from bed but could discern nothing in the sky because it was too dark. They saw no light of any sort. They declared they recognized the airship by the hum of the motor.

VAGS WILL SOON STEER CLEAR

At Present Bellevue, Ohio, Welcomes Them, but the Word Will Soon go Down The Line

ALL ARE COMPELLED TO WORK

Even Cook Their Own Meals Under "System Started There—Stone Pile is First

(By United Press.)

Bellevue O., May 13.—Only one have tramps or vagabonds you don't want just put them on the train for Bellevue. They'll be cheerfully received. The new official system here makes the advent of a few "boes" a joyous occasion.

The town is a municipal asset to Bellevue. Here are a few of the things they have done for this town of 6,000 souls:

Polished the streets; carried off the rubbish from every back yard; put the baseball diamond in fine condition and started a sewer system for the city. After the sewer is completed they'll be put to work paving new streets.

The nice thing about it all, he does these things willingly, cheerfully—after they've seen the stone pile. They are given their choice of the two.

Take the case of Banjo Charlie, who recently swung off side door pullman. While looking for the "welcome" chalk mark on a gate post or back door, he was greeted by Chief of Police Charles Buckland, who said cheerily:

"Come right up to the city hall and register. Glad to see you."

Banjo Charlie followed the line of least resistance.

"Want you to meet our Mayor," said Buckland.

"Good morning judge," said Charlie suspiciously.

"Good morning," responded Mayor H. C. Aurand, pleasantly. "Five and costs."

Then the new arrival got his first line of Bellevue's hospitality. He was waited into the combination jail, dining hall and kitchen.

"Here's the makin's" said Chief Buckland, thrusting into Charlie's paw some eggs, bacon and a skillet. A small stove was in the corner.

"Do I gotta get my own breakfast?" queried Charlie, peevish.

"You certainly do," said Buckland. "You'll be doing lots of things for yourself before you leave."

After breakfast Charlie was led to the stone pile, a ball and chain affixed to his leg, and a heavy sledge placed in his hands.

"Would you mind sweeping a little mud off our streets this morning?" Charlie was asked, casually.

"I'd dearly love to," was the prompt response.

All tramps are given eleven days as soon as apprehended. They are required to do their own cooking. Vags are allowed to sell junk gleaned from the rubbish carted away, and keep the money.

GIRL OF ELEVEN SHOOT FOX.

Maine Maid Is Expert With a 22 Caliber Rifle.

Prentiss, Me.—Birdie Sibley, eleven years old, can do almost anything that any other little girl of that age can do, and lots they can't or don't.

She is at the head of her classes in school, can cook a meal, sew and knit, make a garden, drive a horse, ride horseback and if the family were short of fresh meat could go out and get material enough for a rabbit stew almost any time with her little 22 rifle.

Birdie was out with her rifle recently and saw a fox running along the edge of the woods some distance off. She took careful aim just ahead of him and fired the shot, striking the fox in his foreleg, and he rolled over and over. Quickly running toward him and packing in another cartridge, Birdie made a quick shot, hitting the fox square in the head just as he was gathering himself to make off on three legs. She hopes to get another for next year and have a fine set of furs made.
